Summer Reading Challenge

Read six different texts over the summer holiday and win house points for your house!

To enter, simply complete all of the six challenges on the bingo card below and write a short review of each text you read.

Read a news article	Read a short story
Read a book written before you were born	Read a poem
Read a fairy-tale	Read a non-fiction book

This competition is worth 90 House Points

Not sure on how to write a review?

Think about the points below:

•What is the text about?

•If you could ask the author/poet one question, what would it be?

•Who was your favourite character? Why?

•If you could ask the main character one question, what would it be and why?

•If you could change one thing in the story, what would it be?

•What was the most interesting thing you learned from the text?

•Would you recommend this book? Why/why not? Who would you recommend it to?

How to submit:
